- The testing window for FAST (reading) and BEST (math) began this week. If you are required to test, please advise your college professors in advance.
- The yearbook cover design contest will end at 3:00 pm on 9/15/23. Be sure to get your submissions in before the deadline.
- Parents and students, as Remind is phased out you, you will soon receive a text message asking you to opt-in to receive School Messenger notifications. This is not spam. Please opt-in to stay informed.
- Parents and seniors, attendance at senior meetings has been sorely lacking! We need you to make these mandatory meetings a priority! Again, these meetings are every first Friday at 9:00 am excluding December and May. Arrange your schedules accordingly.
- Parents, if you have not completed this year's entry forms for your student, they are needed immediately! Those students who are missing forms have been informed. Please ask your student about them.
- COL does not have a dress code, but please use your tasteful and appropriate judgment. Girls' tops must have straps! Administration will advise students of any concerns.
- Have you checked your student's progress on Canvas lately? Now's a great time to do it!
