

Cost of Attendance

ACADEMIC YEAR 2026-2027

The Cost of Attendance (COA) is an estimate of the total expenses a student may incur for one academic year of full-time enrollment. These budgets are used to determine financial aid eligibility. Individual costs will vary based on enrollment status, program, and personal circumstances. Tuition & Mandatory Fees are calculated using an algorithmic rule based on actual charges.

NOTES

- Tuition & Mandatory Fees (TUFE) are budgeted at $2,973.36 per academic year for in-state students and $11,272.80 per academic year for out-of-state students. Books, Supplies, Course Materials & Equipment (BSCE) are budgeted at $1,349.00 per academic year and applies to all four housing groups.
- Housing shown as "At Home" (HOUH, $4,725) or "Off Campus" (HOOU, $11,412) depending on the student's living situation group code.
- Program Fees (PFEE), Direct Loan Fees (DLFE), and Aviation Fees (AVIA) are included in aid calculations but currently budgeted at $0 for standard students. Aviation Fees apply only to aviation program enrollees.
- BSCE and AVIA are marked "Used for less than one-half Pell" in the system, meaning they are included in the COA for students enrolled less than half-time for Pell Grant purposes.
- Costs shown represent a full academic year (fall plus spring semesters). Summer enrollment budgets are calculated separately.
- This document reflects data entered in the Ellucian Banner system for Aid Year 2627 (2026-2027). Polk State College does not offer on-campus housing; all housing figures represent estimated off-campus or at-home costs.
