JUNIORS

Tuesday April 19 is ACT School Day. A limited number of juniors will be able to take the College Reportable ACT at no cost here at school. Watch Canvas for the link to sign up.

Mandatory junior conferences with Mrs. Black and Mr. Hofstetter are in full swing. During this meeting students will review their high school graduation requirements and their progress towards an AA degree. Students will also leave with a tentative course plan for their remaining time at CHS. Students who sign up are getting priority in scheduling for summer and fall. Parents are encouraged to attend! Use this link to reserve your time- <https://bit.ly/JuniorConf2022>

CHS Withdrawal Policy:

Before a withdrawal from a college course is approved, it's CHS policy for students to complete the steps below to show a good faith effort that everything possible has been tried to be successful in that class.

1. Email the professor of the class. -Explain that you are considering withdrawing from the course and ask for suggestions on how you can be more successful.
2. Attend at least 3 TLCC tutoring sessions for core academic courses.
3. Parent contact and a meeting scheduled with Mrs. Black and Mrs. Allen
4. Complete Polk State's Student Request for Withdrawal form

*Seniors it is recommended that you contact the admissions offices of the colleges you are interested in before withdrawing to find out their policy regarding withdrawals.

*Withdrawals will not be approved if the grade in the course is not a D or F.

If you have not paid your class dues for this school year, please go to www.polk.edu/eaglefund to complete this. Junior dues are $25 and Senior dues are $35. Thank you!
