
Guadeloupe Science

March 22-30, 2019

Contact: Kim Simpson
E-Mail: ksimpson@polk.edu
Phone: 863.669.4917

Office: LTB1267-Lakeland Campus

Overview

Students will gain experience in environmental and ocean sciences while visiting Guadeloupe. Polk State students will work with students from the University of Antilles to collect water samples using robotic remote controlled vehicles, analyze the samples and record the data.

Program Inclusions:

- ❖ Round trip air to Guadeloupe
- ❖ Lodging
- ❖ Airport transfers and ground transportation
- ❖ All scheduled activities and tours
- ❖ Some meals
- ❖ Study abroad insurance

Program Leaders: Professors Maier and Moran

Course Options:

- BSC1311C
- OCE2001C
- Non-Credit Option Available

Things to Consider:

- Will share a room with 1-3 students
- Walk or hike 3-7 miles per day
- Hike areas such as volcanic mountains, rainforest, beach and mangroves
- Some travel will be on small and big boats
- Swimming/snorkeling may be required
- 10 – 12 hours per day for activities

Estimated Program Cost:

$2000.00

*Not Included: passport/visa fees, some meals, tuition and non-credit fee if applicable.

Optional Additional Fee:

Non-Credit - $248

Payment Due Dates:

December 1st – 50% Deposit

February 20th – Balance Due

December 15th – Pay course tuition or non-credit fee

* Monthly payment plans available.

Meetings:

Orientation: January 18th

Pre-departure: March 1st

Debrief: April 5th