

International Education Week

“From dependency to partnership, how international financial institutions are making a difference to Africa’s economic development. An examination of Africa’s mining industry.”

Presented by

Ayodeji Olaifa (DJ)

Vice President, Senior Business Development Officer at KfW IPEX-Bank, a German bank specializing in international projects and export finance.

Olaifa (DJ), holds a bachelors (Hons) degree in Political Science from the University of Lagos, Nigeria, two post-graduate diplomas in Marketing Management and Financial Planning from the University of South Africa and University of Stellenbosch, respectively. He also holds a Master of Arts degree in Development Studies from Nelson Mandela University. Olaifa is skilled in export & project finance, wealth management, offshore banking, and investments. He is a Pan Africanist and author – with three titles to his name: Unjani Mfwethu?: The Story of a Migrant in South Africa, The Helper's Son, and Nuns at the Gate.

Olaifa has a strong bias for stories that affect the human condition.

Wednesday, November 20 | 12:30 p.m.
Lakeland Campus | LTB 1125

Thursday, November 21 | 10 a.m.
Winter Haven Campus | WLR 102

Sponsored by:
Golden Key International Honour Society and SALO

Polk State College is committed to equal access/equal opportunity in its programs, activities, and employment. For additional information, visit polk.edu/compliance.

polk.edu/salo