GO AWAY IRMA!!!!

We all sincerely hope everyone is doing well and in good spirits following the aftermath of Hurricane Irma.

We hope you are all ready to get back in motion with the Fall semester!! The Community Service Fair was a big hit and helped students with brainstorming for their community service requirement for Leadership class.

Class dances are coming up, student elections are taking place, students are being applying to their dream schools, students are getting admitted to early admissions, FAFSA is upon us now, Fall is in full effect!!!

Below is a photo of 15 of our students out on a birthday cake delivery for VISTE organized by our United Way Student Club!!! Great Job Students!!!
