

TRAMCON

Training for Manufactured Construction

We train Polk.

Training the manufactured construction workers of tomorrow

The First Step to Manufactured Construction Jobs

Who:

Individuals who would like to attain their knowledge base while earning nationally recognized certifications in the manufactured construction industry.

What:

A series of courses designed to certify individuals for careers in the manufactured construction industry.

MSSC Certified Production Technician MFG Production Core

- Manufacturing Processes and Production
- Quality and Continuous Improvement
- Maintenance Awareness
- Safety

NCCER Construction Core

- Basic Safety
- Construction Drawings
- Construction Math
- Materials Handling
- Hand Tools
- Power Tools
- Employability Skills
- Communication Skills

TRAMCON Intro to Manufactured Construction

- Production Environment
- Manufactured Residential Construction Process
- Team Building & Cooperation
- Skills Development
- Quality

MSSC CPT, NCCER & TRAMCON Certifications

Jan. 19 – Feb. 17, 2016

8am – 4pm

In Support of SOC Code(s):
49-1011, 49-9071, 51-1011

For more information contact:

Mary Beth Shapiro
Recruitment, Retention and Completion Coach, TRAMCON
mshapiro@polk.edu
863.297.1010 x4615

POLK STATE
Corporate College

310 Technology Drive
Bartow, Florida 33830

Industry Partner:
Palm Harbor Homes

This material was funded in whole by a $15M TAACCCT grant awarded by the US Department of Labor's Employment and Training Administration.