High School Diploma + College Degree

Finishing HS Diploma and AA

- Requires very rigorous college schedule including summers
- Largely depends on degree choice, prerequisites, remaining HS credits
- Completing "Liberal Arts" AA will rarely meet all prerequisite requirements for specific university degree programs
- Some Universities may require completion of degree-specific pre-requisites before admission to specific programs of study

- Most universities require meeting program GPA minimum before admission
- Follow individual university and college stated transfer requirements
- Requirements vary per school, so you must do your research!

- ALL withdrawals must be completed through the COL Guidance
  Counselor to avoid conflicts with HS graduation requirements
- Consider taking HS course if in doubt of college-level abilities for certain credits
- Parent notification form will be required
- Students should seek tutoring/intervention at the first sign of academic trouble to avoid a withdrawal - See the Guidance Counselor or Lab Instructor!
- Number of allowed withdrawals is very limited
- College may impose out-of-state fees for duplicate college course attempts
- Student should not withdraw prematurely
- Excessive withdrawals will affect admissions decisions to colleges/universities
- Students will be required to replace missing class with a high school course/lab class

SAMPLE ESSAY STEMS FROM UF:

"I read your college application essay. First of all the word 'COLLEGE' has two 'L's."

Describe an activity, interest, experience, or achievement in your life (this could be a book, movie or an activity or experience at work, home or school) that has been particularly meaningful to you.

On November 18, 2011, a group of my friends and I returned home from my birthday dinner at a local steakhouse. Upon our arrival, it was suggested that we watch the movie Fight Club. As if it were meant to be, we discovered that Fight Club was to be aired in a matter of minutes on one of the multitude of Home Box Office channels. We proceeded to...

What qualities or unique characteristics do you possess that would allow you to contribute to the university community?

In order to contribute to a community of any size or structure, some aspect of said community must be made better. This can be something as simple as cleaning up refuse or as profound as changing the way people live their lives. Regardless of the magnitude by which one seeks to better their community, certain attentiveness to detail must be present...
