

Core Values:

INTEGRITY: Integrity is the foundation of the KCTIPS core ethics and shall be exhibited in every aspect of each member's professional and personal life. Each member shall be honest, competent, and consistent in his or her beliefs and actions

RESPECT: KCTIPS members shall demonstrate tolerance, civility, and fairness in all interactions with other members, students, and client agencies. Decisions shall be free from prejudice and favoritism, promoting a climate of mutual trust and respect.

SELF-DISCIPLINE: Self-discipline molds the member's moral character into behaviors that support the success of the KCTIPS mission. KCTIPS members shall exercise self-discipline in their efforts, determination, and sacrifice.

SERVICE: KCTIPS members are dedicated to providing the highest quality, professional training and educational programs to public safety personnel for the benefit and safety of the community.

ACCOUNTABILITY: Accountability is the hallmark of the KCTIPS. Members will hold themselves accountable to the highest standards of professionalism through moral and ethical conduct, integrity, mutual trust, and respect.

COMMITMENT: KCTIPS members will exhibit commitment to their pursuit of excellence in supporting the community and upholding the integrity of their service.