

Industry Certification Partners

The International Society of Automation - <http://www.isa.org/> - Founded in 1945, the International Society of Automation (www.isa.org) is a leading, global, nonprofit organization that is setting the standard for automation by helping over 30,000 worldwide members and other professionals solve difficult technical problems, while enhancing their leadership and personal career capabilities.

The American Society for Quality - <http://asq.org/index.aspx> - As a global quality community, ASQ advances the professional development, credentials, knowledge and information services, membership community, and advocacy on behalf of millions of individual and organizational members in 140 countries. ASQ champions the cause of quality through a variety of fields and standards. ASQ provides support to a number of volunteer groups that develop and approve international and American National Standards. This includes the most widely known standards, such as ISO 9001, ISO 26000, and ISO 14001, as well as other standards and technical reports that apply quality management principles, tools and technology.

The Manufacturing Skills Standards Council - <http://www.msscusa.org/> - The Manufacturing Skill Standards Council (MSSC), a 501(c) 3 non-profit, is an industry-led, training, assessment and certification system focused on the core skills and knowledge needed by the nation's front-line production and material handling workers. The nationwide MSSC System, based upon industry-defined and federally-endorsed standards, offers both entry-level and incumbent workers the opportunity to demonstrate that they have acquired the skills increasingly needed in the technology-intensive jobs of the 21st century.

The Occupational Health and Safety Administration - <https://www.osha.gov/> - OSHA specializes in safety training for OSHA Outreach, HAZWOPER Training, and construction industry and general industry safety training. Our interactive online courses include the OSHA 10-hour Outreach, OSHA 30-hour Outreach, and the HAZWOPER 40-hour, 24-hour and 8-hour Refresher courses.

The Association for Packaging and Processing Technologies – <http://www.pmmi.org/> - PMMI is the leading global resource for packaging and processing. Founded in 1933, PMMI is a trade association made up of more than 650 member companies that manufacture packaging, processing and packaging-related converting machinery, commercially-available packaging machinery components, containers and materials in the United States, Canada and Mexico. PMMI's vision is to be the leading global resource for packaging and processing, and its mission is to improve and promote members' abilities to succeed in a global marketplace.
