ENTRY FORM AND RULES

- The artist is responsible for delivery and pick-up of their artwork to the Lakeland Gallery or Professor by the date listed above. If the gallery is closed, you may drop off artwork with one of the art professors. Artwork MUST have forms attached. If you need to make special arrangements for drop off email hscoggins@Polk.edu.
 - Students can enter multiple categories, but are limited to 5 pieces total. Categories include: Ceramics, Design, Drawing, Mixed Media, Painting, Photography, Sculpture Maximum of three pieces per category. Artworks submitted are not guaranteed in the show. The show will be curated by the Visual Art faculty. Artworks could be removed from the show for the following reasons: poor craftsmanship/presentation, poor quality, too many artworks, space restrictions, etc.
 - For submission, your work MUST be display-ready, i.e. framed, wired, and ready to hang. Your work must include wire, hanger, and backing. For assistance with framing/matting/wiring, contact one of the art professors. If your work is not properly framed it can be removed from the exhibition at the discretion of the faculty or judge.
 - Artwork must have been created in the last two years only – older work will not be accepted.
 - Artwork that has been exhibited at a previous Polk State College exhibition is not eligible.
 - Entrant must be a current Polk State College Student to be eligible. Students from any campus are eligible. You do not have to be enrolled in an art class to enter.
 - After the last day of the exhibition, the artist will have one week to pick up their entries from the Art Gallery and sign out their artwork. Polk State is not responsible for student artwork after this deadline.
 - Polk State will take due care in handling the artwork; beyond this, Polk State is not responsible for damages to any artwork caused during transit, storage, or installation. Basic insurance is provided for the artworks during the exhibition dates.
 - By submitting your artwork to this exhibition, you are permitting Polk State College to use the image(s) of your artwork for publication and/or advertising purposes.
 - Awards will be given at the discretion of the judge.
 - Please fill out all requested information on both parts of this form for each entry. By signing, you agree with the entry rules of this exhibition.
